

As many of you blog regulars know, I have worked diligently over the past few months to build support among my colleagues for H.R. 810, the Stem Cell Research Enhancement Act of 2005. The day we've been working toward is finally here. We are now debating H.R. 810 and I will be making a floor statement in the next few minutes. Since this legislation is so important to so many, we will keep you updated in real time on the progress of debate. Stay tuned...
